The easiest way to look up a legal case is on the “Look up a Legal Case” search widget.

Type in a citation, party name, or topic.

If you need to search through different parameters, like by jurisdiction, judge, or attorney. Or, if you need to do a broad search on a set of cases. Use the “Federal & State Cases” search form. Click on the US Legal section.
Then, click “Federal & State Cases.”

Pick a “Jurisdiction” from the Jurisdiction box.

Type in or, select sections to search within a citation, party name, or topic.
Make sure your citation is in a proper format! Click the link to go to our Legal Citation Format article. Thanks for watching!
